FILM FESTIVAL OF CATALONIA

5TH - 15TH OCTOBER 2023

2.2. Special Screenings

Films programmed as a tribute, for their suitability or other justified reasons, which don't necessarily have to be a Spanish premiere.

The Festival reserves the right to program, on an exceptional basis, serialized productions.

2.3. Òrbita Section

Feature length films of all nationalities, previously unreleased in Spain, produced in 2022/2023 and belonging to genres closely related to the fantastic genre, like thrillers, action movies, adventure or black comedy.

An international jury will present the award for best feature film.

2.4. Noves Visions Section

Films of all nationalities, previously unreleased in Spain, produced in 2022/2023 and fantastic themed, which are committed to experimentation, new languages and formats and genre hybridization.

An international jury will present the award for Best feature film, Best Director and up to three special mentions. The award for best short film Noves Visions (Small Format) will also be presented.

On an exceptional basis, the Festival reserves the right to program films previously screened out of official competition at another Spanish Film festival. This category contains a section for short films by Catalan film school students, grouped together under the name Nova Autorialia. The selected shorts, in collaboration with the SGAE, compete for the following awards: best screenplay, best director and best music.

2.5. Panorama Fantàstic Section

Films of all nationalities, previously unreleased in Spain, produced in 2022/2023 fantastic and horror themed, with an independent inclination. On an exceptional basis, the Festival reserves the right to program films previously screened out of official competition at another Spanish Film festival.

By popular vote, the audience will present an award to the best fiction feature film in this section.

2.6. Anima't Section

Animated feature films produced in 2022/2023, previously unreleased in Catalonia.

On an exceptional basis, the Festival reserves the right to program films previously screened out of official competition at another Spanish Film festival. Anima't includes a section for short films produced in 2022/2023 with a maximum runtime of 30 minutes. The selected shorts must be previously unreleased in Catalonia.

The Selection Committee reserves the possibility of selecting advertising, promo or music video pieces that it considers to have sufficient artistic and cinematic value as short films, as long as they are thematically related to the Festival's area of specialization.

The section's Jury will present the following awards: Award for best animated short film (this short will automatically be taken into consideration by the Selection Committee of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences in Hollywood for the Oscars®) and Award for best animated feature length film.

2.7. Seven Chances Section

Section programmed in collaboration with the Associació Catalana de Crítics i Escriptors Cinematogràfics (Catalan Association of Film Critics and Writers). It consists of seven screenings focusing on fantastic film productions in the broadest sense, as well as genres related to the Festival (thrillers, spaghetti westerns, wu xia, etc.).

The section focuses on non-current films (preferably at least fifteen years old) whose singularity sets them apart from the official canon of the history of genre. As a result, the intention is to highlight films of interest that are worth discovering or revisiting, and which will be screened in their original format or a restored copy. The educational spirit of Seven Chances will also mean that part of the screenings will include currently produced documentaries that deal with an outstanding figure or trend in genre cinema. The films selected for Seven Chances must be premieres in Catalonia (and preferably in Spain); at least the version/copy that will be screened.

2.8. Midnight X-treme Section

A selection of the best independent horror movies. By popular vote, the audience will present an award to the best fiction feature film in this section. This competition is limited to films produced in 2022/2023, previously unreleased in Spain.

2.9. Brigadoon Section

Selection of feature films, documentaries and short films, made in 2022/2023, independently produced and horror and fantastic themed. The selected works will include premieres, retrospectives, tributes and / or cult cinema. There is no need for them to be unpublished in Spain. However, works posted on the Internet will not be taken into consideration.

A jury will present the Paul Naschy Brigadoon Award for the best fantastic genre short film.

2.10. Sitges Classics Section

Encompasses the Festival's retrospective, particular tributes, anniversaries and collaborations.

2.11. Sitges Coming Soon Section

A selection of upcoming Catalan, Spanish and Latin American productions.

2.12. Sitges Documenta

Selection of non-fiction feature length productions, made in 2022/2023, that are thematically related to the Festival's specialization.

III) CROSS-SECTIONAL AWARDS & LABELS

3.1. Focus Asia Award

All films produced by Asian production companies included in any of the Festival's sections, as long as their subject matter falls within the context of the popular genres (thriller, action, fantastic), are eligible for this award.

All films must be previously unreleased in Spain. The Festival's Selection Committee reserves the right to assess these criteria.

3.2 Méliès d'Argent Awards

Awards presented to the best European fantastic genre feature film and short film included in any of the Festival's sections and according to the Selection Committee's nomination the winning feature length and short films will be eligible for the Méliès d'Or Award, organized by the EFFFF (European Fantastic Film Festivals Federation).

3.3. Blood Window Award

All films of Latin American production included in any of the Festival's sections, as long as their subject matter falls within the context of the fantastic genre, are eligible for this award. The Festival's Selection Committee reserves the right to assess these criteria.

3.4. Sitges Family Label

It identifies those films intended for children and young people, all designed for family viewing, included at the Festival. This cross-sectional label identifies relevant titles for film literacy and includes films that may be screened in other sections, in other words, it has no competitive status in itself.

3.5. Catalan Focus Label

Encompasses all Catalan productions included in the Festival.

IV) PROCEDURE FOR OFFICIAL PARTICIPATION IN THE EVENT OF SELECTION

4.1. The production company or distributor of the selected films will receive the entry form and a proposal from Programming Management for their approval.

The production company or distributor will then commit to fill in and send the entry form back to the Festival before August 10th, 2023.

In the event that the Festival has to share the print with other festivals, it must be specified on the entry form, indicating the print's availability during the dates of the 56th Sitges – International Fantastic Film Festival of Catalonia.

4.2. The company loaning the film must provide the Festival with high quality advertising material: stills, posters, press-books, trailers, etc., so the Festival can promote the film adequately. The Festival reserves the right to not return this material.

4.3. In the event that it is necessary to subtitle the film, the company loaning it must also provide the appropriate material: reference link, DVD or Blu-ray and dialogue and/or subtitle list.

The Festival will not return this material, which will be destroyed once the Festival is over. If the film has distribution in Spain, the distribution company must provide the Festival with an original version screening print with subtitles.

4.4. The screening formats for the selected films will be:

Feature length films included in the Official Fantàstic, Special Screenings, Òrbita, Noves Visions, Panorama Fantàstic, Sitges Documenta, Anima't, Seven Chances, Midnight X-Treme and Sitges Clàssics sections:

35 mm

DCP on physical support (hard disk) or digital transfer. In the event that they are encrypted, the Festival will not cover the charges derived from generating the DKDMs or KDMs needed to be screened at the film competition.

Short films included in the Official Fantàstic, Noves Visions Petit Format, Anima't sections:

Non-encrypted DCP

HD quality digital file (.mov)

Feature length and short films included in the Brigadoon section:

5TH - 15TH OCTOBER 2023

4.5. The Festival will cover shipping expenses generated by the shipping of prints to be screened, except in the event that the print needs to be sent to another Festival. In this event, the other Festival will pay for shipping costs from the Sitges Film Festival's address to the address provided. The Festival will not cover the cost of shipping or returning trailers or teasers. The Festival will not cover any possible digital shipping costs.

4.6. In the event of providing a screening print on a hard disk, the Festival commits to returning the print as soon as possible, not more than 20 days after the end of the film competition. The Festival organization commits to eliminate all screening materials received digitally once the current edition is finished.

4.7. In the event that the print gets damaged as a consequence of its screening at the Festival, the owner must inform the Festival within one month's time, starting from the date the print is returned.

The Festival's responsibility will not exceed the cost specified on the entry form by the company loaning the film.

4.8. The Festival organization will decide each film's screening dates and times. No film included in any of the Festival's sections will be screened more than 5 times, including press screenings, without the owner's previous consent.

4.9. In regard to the recording of film clips for use on television programs, the Festival will comply with the rules established in the FIAPF regulations for specialized competitive festivals.

4.10. The Festival accepts all F.I.A.P.F rules & regulations for specialized competitive festivals.

4.11. Participation in the Festival implies acceptance of the Rules & Regulations herein.

4.12. Any matter arising during the Festival that is not covered by these Rules & Regulations, will be decided on by the Festival Organization in accordance with international rules.
